Butte Celebrates Grand Opening of Cellular One Store

04-30-2008

BUTTE, MT - Cellular One, formerly Chinook Wireless, kicked off their official Grand Opening in Butte, MT, Monday, April 28. The Cellular One retail store, located at 3332 Harrison Ave, held a wire cutting ceremony on Tuesday, April 29 at 12:00 noon with the Butte Chamber of Commerce. Local businesses were invited to attend.

During Tuesday's ceremony, Cellular One donated $500 to Butte Rescue Mission, a local non-profit organization, providing meals, temporary shelter and basic services for those in need. Mr. Cotton commented upon receiving the donation, "We are overwhelmed by the generosity of Cellular One. We appreciate the fact that Cellular One has chosen to take us under their wing and give us this much needed support."

This Saturday's Event

The Family Fun Day event will be held at the Cellular One store Saturday, May 3, 2008, from 12-5pm. Activities include Montana Tech Coaches who will give punt, pass and kick tips, Montana Tech Cheerleaders will be doing face painting, and free child fingerprinting by the Butte PD. Cellular One will also host a bounce house, games and give-a-ways during the event. Free food will be provided by Quiznos, Western Meat and Sausage, Pablos, and The Chicken Shack.

Special offers on phones include buy one Motorola KRZR at $29.99 and get one Free! The first 20 people to purchase a phone will receive a free Bluetooth headset.

Cellular One offers exceptional service in Butte and surrounding areas. Cellular One is very excited to offer expanded services to the communities it serves including new nationwide calling plans, as well as, enhanced voice and data services to fit the needs of all of their customers.

"We are very proud to offer knock-your-socks-off customer service," stated, Cheri St. John, Market Manager, for Cellular One. "We invite the entire community to come out and visit our store and get information on the latest smart phones, video and camera phones."
