Cellular One Donates Over 1000 Pairs of Socks to Montana Shelters

Missoula, MT –April 21, 2008 – Cellular One kicked off a new advertising campaign entitled “Service That Will Knock Your Socks Off” on March 30, 2008. The campaign is supported through television ads, radio, newspaper and billboards.

As part of the “Knock Your Socks Off” campaign, Cellular One is donating over 1000 pairs of new socks to local shelters. “We are so grateful to Cellular One for their donation,” stated Cindy Weese, Executive Director of the YWCA Missoula. Ms. Weese went on to say “The socks will go directly to the women and children in our program who are fleeing violent homes.”

During 2007 the YWCA alone, assisted more than 1276 individuals in need. Services provided by the YWCA Missoula include 24/7 crisis hotline and shelter, transitional housing, supervised visitation, girl’s and women’s leadership programs as well as extensive community outreach and education.

Cellular One is also encouraging customers to donate the much needed new pairs of socks when they visit the retail stores and Cellular One will waive their activation fee now through April 26.

“Our marketing campaign is a way of showing our commitment to provide “Service That Will Knock Your Socks Off” stated Jonathan Foxman, President and CEO of Cellular One. “The sock donation is just another way of showing our commitment to the community.”
